Wreckers Tear Down Old Wigwam Where Pugs Trained

Popular Training Camp For 30 Years, Where Many Fighters Groomed Themselves For Battle, Is Being Razed; Fitz, Corbett, Jeffries and Others Knew It Well.

AN FRANCISCO, Callf. March 2.—Who has not heard of Croll's Gardena, Alamada, in its day the most popular training cump for puglists within a co of miles of San Francisco?

The pinco referred to had vogue, hower, before it was known as Croll's. It is called Neptune Gardena 20 years ago, it was a favorite Sanday founging place people from the San Francisco side of bay.

I saw Jim Corbett train at the old Wigwam for his San Francisco match with Jeffries. Jim, after his experience with Jeffries, figured that what he needed most of all to successfully cope with the "holist-unker" was weight and nuncle.

Corbett Trained for Brawn.

At Croll's he had his exercise room fitted up like a professional strong man's dea. There were giant lifting hars and big weights and all the rost of it but—they did not help Jim.

The funny part of it is that while Corbett was training for speed. At Jeffries's training quasters when the fight was near he said to the writer: "I want you to watch closely and tell me honestly if I outbox Corbett." Coming away from the ring he stopped at the press benches and said to me. "Well, did I?"

"You certainly did." I answered.

FRANK SCRULTE. ITH the rather abrupt departure of Johnny Evers from the ranks of the Chicago Cubs, only one is left to uphold the honor of that famous old Cub machine which Frank Chance led to four pennants and two world's championships. He is Frank ("Wildfire") Schulte, the hard hitting and fleet footed right fielder, whose home run wallops have featured many a Cub victory.

How long Schulte will last hast under the Murphy regime is a matter of opinion. One thing is certain, Murphy will never become exasperated at "Wildfire's" conversation, for this young veteran is an unusual person who does all of his talking to himself at any and all times.

Bright Boxer Mitchell Seems -: :-May Make Things Hum, Belief

Milwaukee has turned out some high class fighters in the past, but during the last two seasons the boxers of class have not been very much in evidence. Jimmy Clabby, who was practically a Milwaukee product, has reached about the top of the middleweight ladder, and Bob Mohn, who promised to make things hum for a while, cased off a bit and missed a chance. Now comes Ritchie Mitchell, a voing featherweight, who looks as though he might shine as brightly as any of them. Mitchell is only a young-ster and a newcomer to the same, having had about 12 contests, but he has learned a lot in that time. He had a real tryout the other night, when he stacked up against the vateran, Patay Brannigan, of Pitsburg. For 10 rounds Patsy tried every trick of fine trade to get the youngster, but when the final bell rang, there was only one decision—Mitchell had beaten the experienced Brannigam. The youngster was fast on his feet and used good judgment in shifting his head out of reach of swings, besides using both hands to perfection in countering Patsys attacks. The boy surely looks like a comer.

WAS THIS YOU?

A farmer on first attending a circus saw a giraffe. After carefully looking the animal over, he turned to a bystander and remarked "Gosh, they ain't any such thing." A man once read a series of facts as candid and truthful as was possible to make them candid and truthful as was possible to make them and then deliberately said to himself, that's a fake. If you read this advertisement and don't believe every word it says, you are a member of this same family. You will not believe your own eyes or the restimony of those who have had experience, so you might as well not read the remainder of this article, You probably had to be mught your A. B.
